FELLOWSHIPS FOR GRADUATE MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS AT WORCESTER POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE

Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI), one of the nation's premier technological universities, delivers innovative management programs integrating business and technology.

Graduate Management Programs at WPI merge conceptual theory with real-world practice. Hands-on, active learning creates graduates who stand apart because of their ability to apply the fundamentals of technology and management to solving challenging, real-world problems. Every aspect of WPI's Graduate Management Programs recognizes the importance of this intersection of business and technology.

WPI offers fellowships to full-time graduate students who must also work 15 hours per week with management faculty and remain in good academic standing (minimum 3.0 GPA). The average award amount is $4,800 and will be available for the length of the program. A total of 30 fellowships will be offered per semester on a rolling deadline.

UNC CHARLOTTE COLLEGE OF BUSINESS WILL OPEN STATE-OF-THE-ART CENTER CITY BUILDING

Beginning in the fall of 2011, the MBA program and several other Belk College graduate programs will move to UNC Charlotte's new state-of-the-art Center City Building located in the heart of Uptown Charlotte. The new structure will provide UNC Charlotte with an enduring presence in the city's business and cultural district, while serving as a brick-and-mortar illustration of the University's position as the leading institution of higher education in the region.

The MBA program at UNC Charlotte's Belk College of Business has ranked in the top tier of part-time programs in the country, according to the 2012 edition of Best Graduate Schools by U.S. News Media Group. UNC Charlotte tied for 59th place among 295 programs in the annual ranking, which is compiled from responses by business school deans and MBA directors.

CHESHIRE ACADEMY OFFERS UNIQUE SUMMER INTENSIVE ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROGRAM

The Cheshire Academy offers both intermediate and advanced intensive English language courses from July 2 - 30. What is unique about their program is that ESL students participate in "specials" which are non-graded elective courses in physics, computer programming, robotics, ceramics, international cuisine and music theory. This fully integrates ESL students in academic settings and provides further language acquisition in these academic interests.

Furthermore, students spend 3 hours per day in direct instruction with a teacher-student ratio of 1:4, live with an American roommate, visit local colleges, sample local food, and embark on a special trip to Harvard, MIT, the New England Aquarium, Faneuil Hall, and the Spirit of Boston Dinner Cruise!

The cost for the 4 weeks is $5,295, which includes books and all activities. Students tend to bring about $300 for personal expenses while transportation to and from JFK is provided free of charge.

NEW VISA RULES, TUITION INCREASES IN UK, SWEDEN, AND AUSTRALIA IMPACT FOREIGN STUDENTS

'New Barriers to a Foreign Degree'

The New York Times

By Christopher F. Schuetze

April 3, 2011

PARIS — At the same time that the number of university students who study abroad continues to climb, a few countries have moved to put up barriers to entry.

Three nations — Australia, Britain and Sweden — have made access to their highly attractive higher education systems more difficult for foreigners. Britain and Australia are adjusting visa and immigration policies, while Sweden will, for the first time in modern history, charge tuition for some foreign students.

The most recent action occurred in Britain, where the Home Secretary, Theresa May, announced on March 22 new rules that will cut student visas by up to 80,000 a year, or almost a quarter of the total granted annually in previous years. The rules, which also include a more stringent English-language requirement, will be rolled out this year and should be fully in place by April 2012.
